Excerpt: .be made to yield a longer supply than is often the case. Plants of the Autumn Giant coming in too quickly should be heeled over. If they are too far gone for this, lifting with a ball and placing under a north wall will prolong the crop. Small heads just turning in may be retarded by tying up the leaves over them. This not only preserves them from sun and rain, which soon discolour them, but protects from early frost. The succession plants for later supplies are much safer treated thus, and will be of better colour when cooked. I find the Self-protecting Broccoli invaluable for late autumn supplies, following closely upon the Cauliflower, which it closely resembles, but it is more selfprotecting. A good breadth of this will keep up the supply till the end of the year if the plants are sheltered....

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
