The present wide discussion indicates that the interest does not abate as the years go by. Every fresh effort to bring to light the facts of our early history is certain to receive a cordial welcome. What we all desire to know is the truth, that we may honor those to whom honor is due, and gather courage and inspiration from the heroic example, the loyal fidelity, and the patient sufferings of the fathers. An intimate acquaintance with the history of the past ought to enable us to make better history in the future. Amid the discussions which are constantly arising, we realize more and more the importance of preserving all records and historic documents. Complete records pertaining to the first century of our denominational history in this country would be invaluable.
