TALES OF A HOUSE WIFE

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Tales of a house wife is a funny, emotional, advice given, loving book, that describes the life changes of one woman and her family. Coping mechanisms are discussed on how to maintain a busy schedule with two kids, finances, jobs, relationships, and post partum depression. It describes how life for this family of four dealt with illness, and slight disabilities. The book manages to speak of honest anxieties of being a caregiver, but also glamours the love that comes along with late night feedings, and dirty diapers. It contains black and white photos of the characters in the book to give the reader and inside look of the family. It s an easy read with humor, honesty, and hope. Just when you think you can t handle another feeding or dose of reality, the book puts a nice spin on those important moments. You ll read it knowing you felt the same way, or know someone who did. It s packed with info on how to manage every day life, along with your relationship, money, and kids. It reminds you to smell the roses when you seem to busy to breathe. It shows forgiveness, strength and courage when you feel all is lost. It will make you smile duirng the happy moments! And it will also make you feel sad when failure arrives. It showcases details of parents who DON T know everything, (but pretend they do.) It reminds you that you are the person you are today because of your past.how you deal with the road blocks along the way makes a big difference. You will learn ideas on how to cope with stress of having...
