

Murder in the Museum

By Breslin, Theresa

Pan, London, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 12mo - over 6¾" - 7¾" tall. Brand new, unread. Bracketts, an Elizabethan house near the town of Fethering, is about to be turned into a museum. Once the home of celebrated poet Esmund Chadleigh, it has been decided that it should now become a shrine to his life and poetry. But the transition from house to museum is running far from smoothly, and Carole soon begins to regret her decision to be on the Board as she witnesses bitter antagonism and rivalry amongst the other members. Then a sudden discovery is made. Buried in the kitchen garden is a human skeleton. And before too long, there is a second body, not yet cold. It is a case that will test the sleuthing powers of Carole and her friend Jude as never before.
