Paperback. 50 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. Do you ever wonder what things will be like for your children or grandchildren? Are you ever fearful your (grand)children will not make it or have a difficult time making it? If you answer no to both of these questions you are lucky. If you answer no to both questions you may not be interested in what I have to say. Maybe you should! If you have any hesitancy in answering either question you will be interested in what I say. My life and my book are about questions - questions not too many people are asking. In the late 1950s and early 1960s banking interests created a monetary system that allowed us and more importantly huge corporations to spend money they did not have and create something out of nothing. For many years I examined the proxy statements of large corporations. I learned some very interesting information from them. I remember reading of a corporation that borrowed a billion dollars. So presumably they are a billion dollars in debt. They took that debt and used it as...
