FROM A MISSIONARY IN THE PINES Or NEW JERSEY, - - It docs not seem as if I had done much here, and yet the simple fact, that I have been enabled to do what I have, is no small matter. I hare a great amount of prejudice and indifference to overcome. It is comparatively heathen ground; and as in the establishment of a mission station in heathen lands, much must be done, and yot little fruit for some time be seen, o it is here. My heart has often bled, and hope almost expired, when I think of the deplorable mor.il darkness that prevails in this whole section of country. And yet the Church in in a state of strange apathy in regard...
