 New Book  Print on Demand .When Harmony walks around her town, all she sees is arguing and unhappiness.
 People are jealous of each other and always trying to prove that being blue is better than being orange or that purple is better than green. So she proposes a solution. I think we should paint everyone gray. That way it would not matter what color everything was or how much land each section had because it would all be the same. At first this seems like a great idea, but trouble soon arises. Will Harmony be able to help the townspeople overcome their differences? Find out in What If We Were All Gray?.
