Pursuant to congressional request, GAO examined the degree of compliance with a requirement that former Department of Defense (DOD) personnel report employment with major defense contractors. Under 10 U. S. C. 2397, former DOD civilian and military personnel who had at least 10 years of continuous service and attained grade GS-13 or a military rank of O-4 and who work for a defense contractor with at least 10 million in negotiated defense contracts are required to report information on their current employment activities. GAO found that the Office of Government Ethics was established to determine the extent to which post-federal employment activities may cause problems because of potential or apparent conflicts of interest, but the determination was never made and the extent of the problems is not known. DOD has no estimate of the number of people required to file or the degree of compliance with the requirement. In preparing its estimate, GAO compared a computer tape of all nongovernment personnel holding security clearances and a computer tape of the personnel who left DOD within a certain time period, and the...
