These input costs and the inability to pass them along are a tremendous threat to the future of Montanas grain industry. Since 2002, the last time Congress examined comprehensive Fed-eral farm policy, a Food Ag Policy Research Institute published in April of 2006 estimated that fuel prices have increased 113 percent and fertilizer prices are up 70 percent. As of last week, those fig-ures have probably been outdated, as they have gone much higher since then. A 2007 farm bill safety net that takes into consideration these increasing costs of production will be very important to Montana producers. The direction we have been given from our membership is straightforward and unmistakable. The highest priority for producers continues to be the direct payment. The direct payment has long been...
